To Whom It May Concern:

Attached are Lapeer County's completed Consolidation Plan forms and the signed CIP Certification of Consolidation of Services that is required as part of the County Incentive Program/Revenue Sharing.

In addition to the attached updated status forms, it is extremely important to note that the following Service Consolidations (previously submitted in 2013) continue to be in effect in Lapeer County with no plan to cease any of these activities/programs/consolidations (not an exhaustive list):

- Shared Level IV Equalization Director with St. Clair County
- Shared Veterans Director with St. Clair County
- Shared Medical Director with Seven (7) Other Counties
- Consolidated Kitchen Serving the Jail and Senior Programs
- Shared Nurse Program between the Health Department and County Jail
- PSAP Dispatch Sharing with all In-County Jurisdictions
- Single Point of Presence for E-911 Telephone Communications
- Merged Treasurer and Equalization Departments
- Merged Senior Programs under the County Health Department
- Collaboration with Lapeer Intermediate School District for Fiber/Internet/Technology Enhancements and Sharing with our Local Municipalities as Requested, Available and/or Needed

Please contact us immediately if there is any additional information or documentation that you need us to provide in order to be in compliance with the CIP requirement.

Respectfully,

John Biscoe
County Controller/Administrator
